PROCEEDING

I.

The Washington State Gambling Commission issued Mick Finsters Pub & Grill, organization number 00-12473, license number 05-06742, authorizing Class "D" Punchboard Pull-Tab activity.

The license expires on September 30, 2012, and was issued subject to the licensee's compliance with state gambling laws and regulations.

II.

David Trujillo, Deputy Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission, charges the licensee with the following violations of the Washington State Gambling Act, 9.46 RCW, and WAC Title 230:

- 1) Mick Finsters Pub & Grill has not submitted their quarterly activity report for the first and second quarters of 2011, which was due on July 30, 2011.
- 2) On November 9, 2011, a Special Agent (agent) went to the licensee's address to speak with the owner about the late activity report, which is the licensee's fifth late report in a row.
 - The agent approached a man behind the bar, later identified as the owner, Scott Nord. Mr. Nord told the agent that the bartender would assist her.
 - The agent asked the bartender if Mr. Nord was available. The bartender said Mr. Nord was the gentlemen the agent had spoken with briefly a few moments before. (Mr. Nord was still in sight behind the bar.)
 - The agent explained why she was at the location and asked the bartender if she could speak with Mr. Nord directly. The bartender approached Mr. Nord, who disappeared around the corner with the bartender. The bartender came back and asked the agent, "What are we missing? I think I did that stuff a long time ago." The bartender then asked for the blank quarterly activity report, which the agent handed to her.

- The agent then asked the bartender if she could speak with Mr. Nord, as she needed to know whether he wanted to accept the $500 Notice of Violation and Settlement (NOVAS)¹ or move forward with a statement of charges for a repeat violation. The bartender disappeared out of sight of the agent. When the bartender came back, she said, "He left, he's busy. He said he will fight the ticket."
- The agent told the bartender that the NOVAS was not due on the spot, and that Mr. Nord had 15 days to pay the fine. The bartender smirked and told the agent to have a good day as she walked away.

2) Previously, on August 19, 2010, Mick Finsters accepted a $300 NOVAS for late reporting of their quarterly activity report for the first and second quarters of 2010. This report was due by July 30, 2010. However, the licensee did not submit the activity report to Commission staff until August 20, 2010, in violation of WAC 230-14-284(1) and (2).

3) As of December 22, 2011, the licensee had not submitted its punchboard/pull-tab activity report for the first and second quarters of 2011.

4) The licensee has the following reporting history for its quarterly activity reports:

Report Period	Due Date	Received Date	Days late
2009-1&2	7/30/2009	8/5/2009	6
2009-3&4	1/30/2010	2/2/2010	3
2010-1&2	7/30/2010	8/20/2010	21
2010-3&4	1/3/2011	1/31/2011	1
2011-1&2	7/30/2011	Not received yet

5) Mick Finsters Pub & Grill's repeated failure to submit its activity reports demonstrates its willful disregard for complying with state administrative rules. Therefore, grounds exist for the suspension of Mick Finsters Pub & Grill's license to conduct gambling activities, based on RCW 9.46.075(1) and WAC 230-03-085(1), (3), and (7).
